

Doctor Better welcomes the family and says, "Your mom tells me you kids have lots of questions."

Sage exclaims, "Yessssss! Why can't I go to school anymore?"

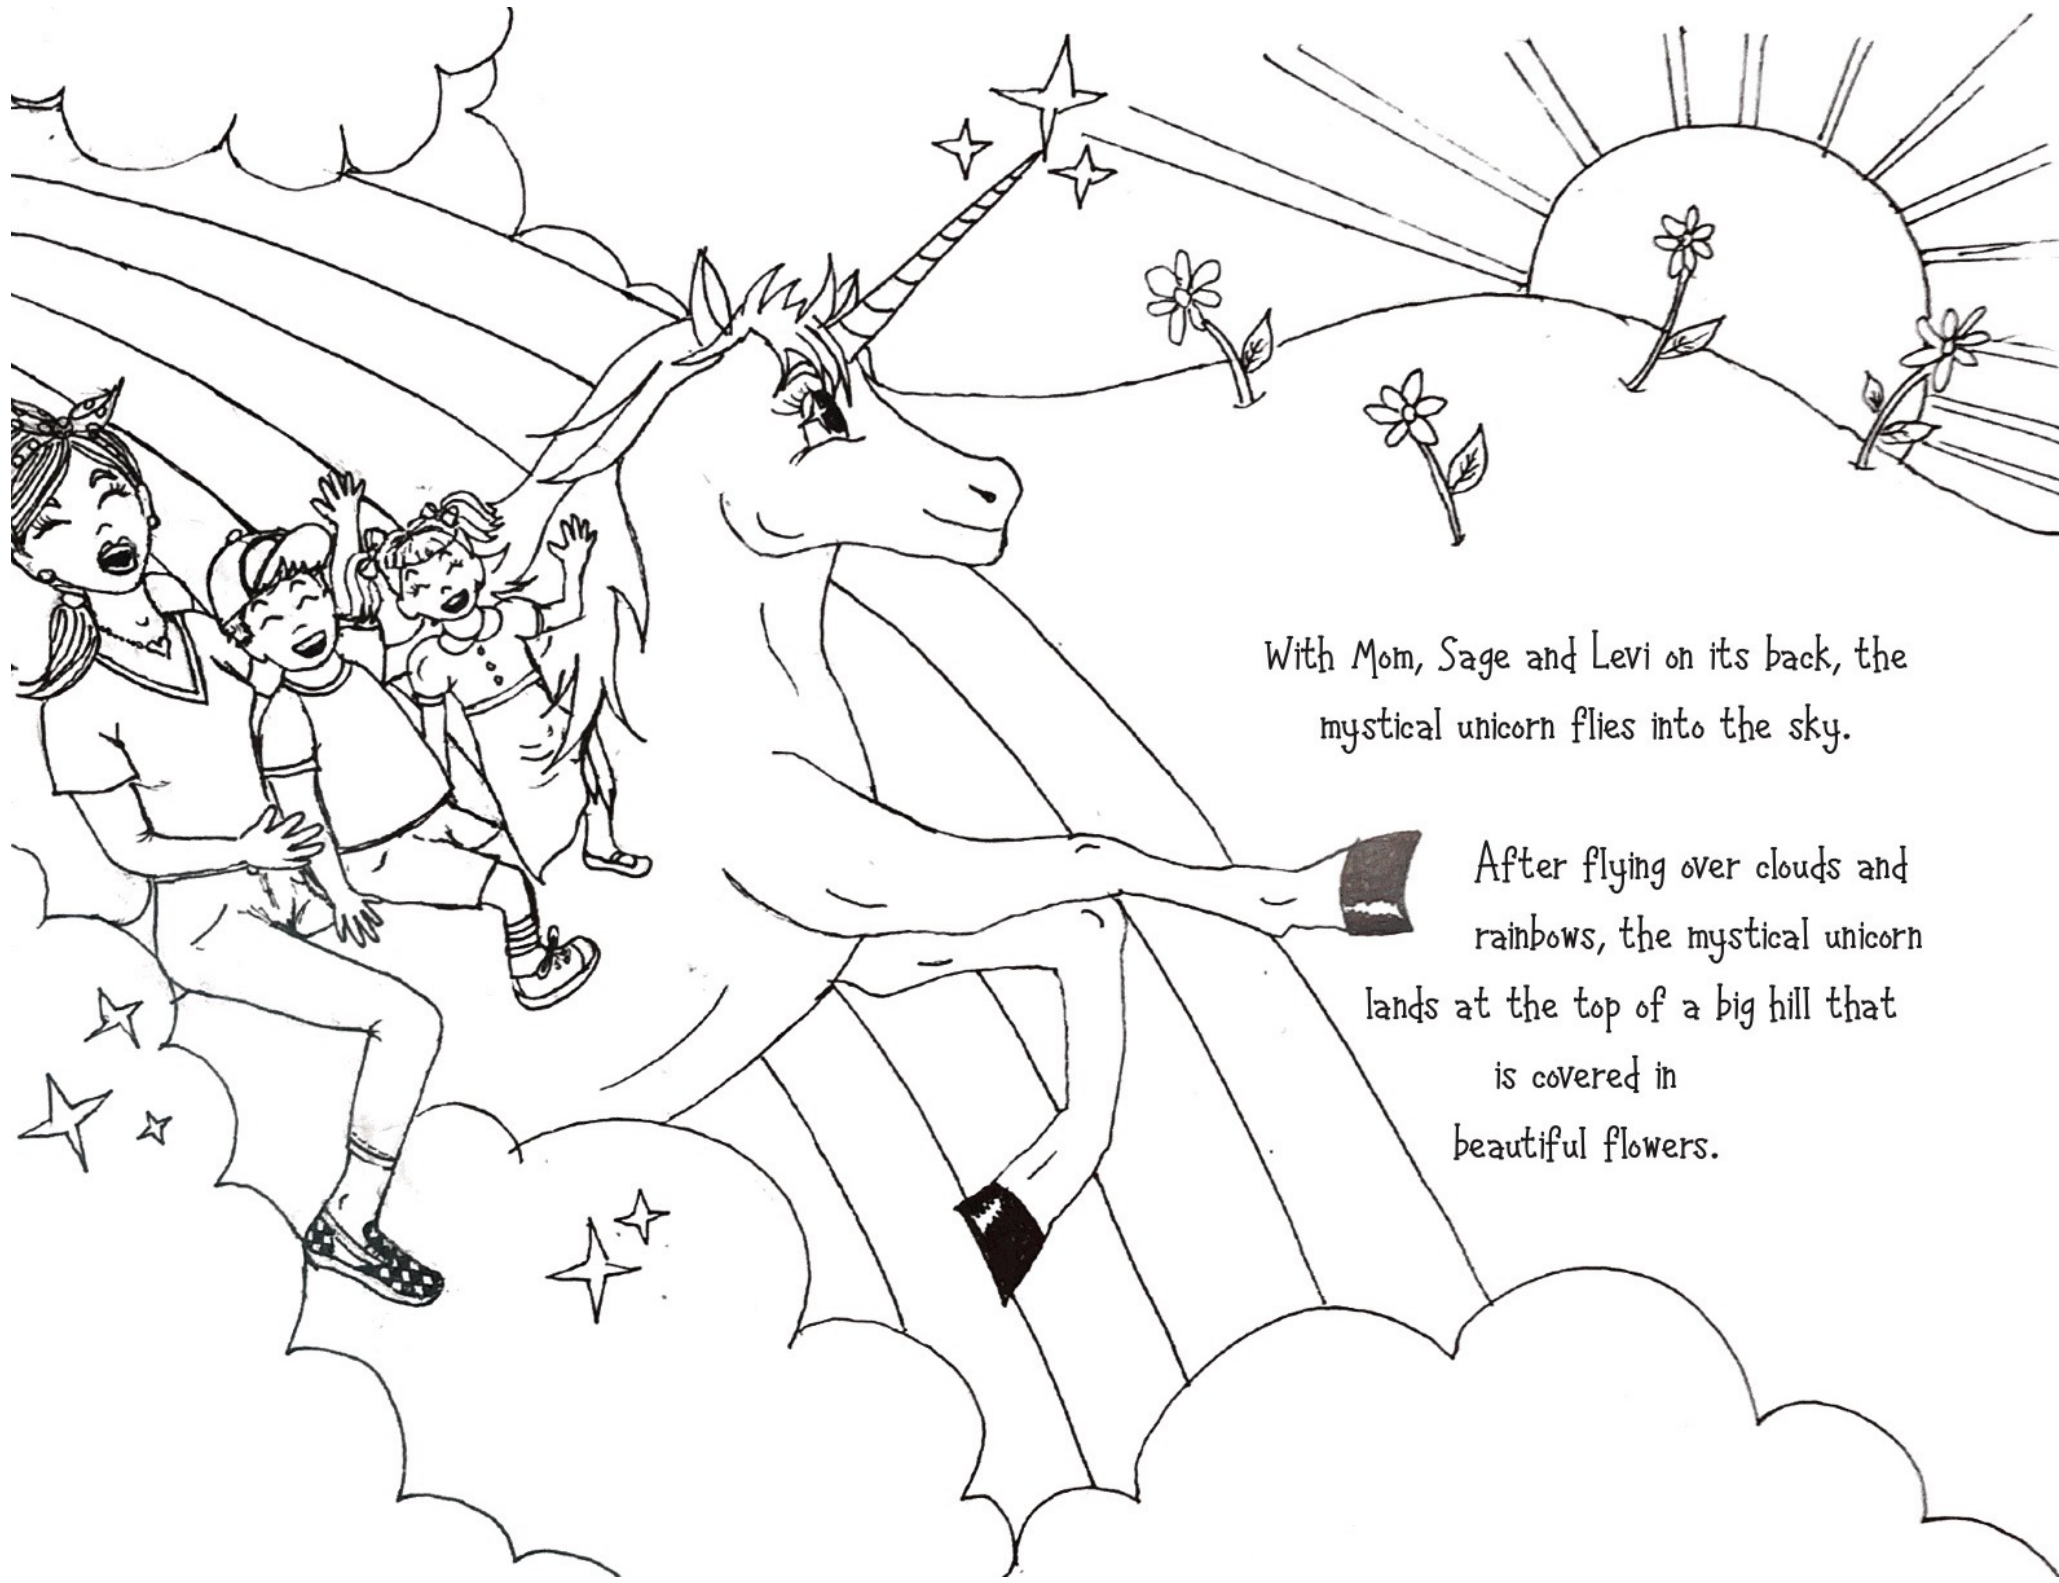

Doctor answers, "Right now, lots of people have a special cough. Staying home for a little bit will keep you and your friends safe. It's also important to wash your hands with soap and warm water often."

Levi asks, "Why can't I see my friends?
I'm sad, I'm worried, I'm scared." Sigmunkey Freud stokes his beard and says, "Ooh ooh ah ah. Verrrrrrry interrrrrrresting. It's okay feel sad, and worried and scared. Whenever you are scared, or sad, or confused, or lonely, you should tell your family what you are feeling. Sometimes, it also helps to draw pictures of all of your feelings."

With Mom, Sage and Levi on its back, the mystical unicorn flies into the sky.

After flying over clouds and rainbows, the mystical unicorn lands at the top of a big hill that is covered in beautiful flowers.

WHY CAN'T I?
